Blacksite Trailblazer

Setting: One day, out of nowhere, a rift in time and space ruptured over the now ruins of Area 51, and in its wake stands a mysterious city of eternal night where creatures once bound by mythos now roam the streets. An NSA Investigator, it has been made your mission to infiltrate the quarantined zone. Gain assets among the cryptids, fey, yokai, and aliens that call it home, and put an end to its chaos before it spreads any further.

Gameplay Loop:
- Explore branching paths with combat, dialogue, and other events throughout "The Eclipsed City".
- Recruit/capture mythological allies.
- Manage resources to survive and strengthen your party.
- (Potentially) stops at casinos/bars for unique interactions.

Combat System:
- 6-party member grid-based combat across 6 lanes.
- Dynamic turn order shifts with character movement.
- No Turn limit; actions keep cycling left to right.
- Attacks dependent on character positioning.
- "Psionic heat" meter punishes overuse of actions with debuffs.
- Party members revive post-combat; full wipes mean game over.

Unique Selling Points:
- No Turn Limit: Manage actions through the psionic heat system.
- Dynamic Combat: Turn order changes with positioning.
- Weird Vibe: Psychadelic gameplay and weird characters fill the city.
- Strange Creatures: Encounter and potentially befriend familiar yet strange faces such as American cryptids, European fey, Japanese yokai, and aliens, with a twist.

Figure 1: Navigation choices as seen in Brutal Orchestra